

Media Studies Part 1 AQ Course

Teaching media literacy is fun and rewarding!

Learn to integrate critical thinking about pop culture, social and informational media, and digital technologies into Secondary English and Grades K-8 cross-curricula.

Explore how production (image, video, audio, GAFE) can enhance and support media literacy skills.

Veteran media teacher guest speakers will share their current challenges and successes.

The course will use collaborative inquiry and wikis to build a collection of current and customizable media teaching strategies, including hands-on experiences, inquiry, creativity, media production, self-directed learning, assessment tools and strategies, collaboration, team teaching and global citizenship.

The Media Studies AQ combines face-to-face sessions with e-learning for 125 hours of professional learning. Tuition Fee: $400 (+$52 HST) Total: $452.00

For non-TDSB teachers: $850.00

Registration closes Friday March 9, 2018 (limited spaces available)

Course starts March 21-May 23, 2018

For additional information and to register please go to Key to Learn.

For non-TDSB teachers please visit the TDSB external website.

Questions: sylvie.webb@tdsb.on.ca