

We Are Reviewing TDSB’s Human Rights Policy And Procedures And Would Like To Hear From You!

The Human Rights Office is in the process of reviewing the TDSB’s current Human Rights Policy (P031) and the associated complaints procedure and would like to hear from you! If you are a parent, caregiver, student or community member, we would like to hear your feedback on how the TDSB can better support human rights.

We have put together the following documents to help guide your input:

Summary of Human Rights Policy \(P031\)

Optional additional documents you may wish to review:

Human Rights Policy \(P031\) with Proposed Changes

Existing Human Rights Policy \(P031\)

Existing student complaints process

Existing procedure, PR515

If you would like to provide feedback on the TDSB Human Rights policy you may do so by clicking here

In addition, if you would like to offer your feedback on how the Board can better support the human rights of students

please click here if you are a student or caregiver and here if you are a staff who supports students

Thank you for participating in this process and supporting our work to strengthen Human Rights at TDSB.
