

In honour of Asian & Jewish Heritage Months this May, TDSB's Asian Heritage Committee and Jewish Heritage Committee are pleased to present:

Chicken Soup, Chicken Soup

Offered as part of the TDSB's Virtual Library for the month of May!

Meet Sophie who plays dress-up with her Grandma Ellie and loves her Bubbe's Jewish chicken soup, made with kreplach. She also paints with her Grandma Nancy and loves Nai Nai's Chinese chicken soup, with wonton. But don't tell Bubbe and Nai Nai that their soups are the same! In Chicken Soup, Sophie solves the problem of which chicken soup is best, bringing her whole family together for a tasty surprise!

Targeted at students in Kindergarten to Grade 3, it has been described as a "very sweet book and a perfect early lesson on diversity." You'll even find Bubbe and Nai Nai's recipes at the end!

What else are we "stirring" up?

Please watch for the next communication:

- Teacher's guide of suggested activities
- Link to book in TDSB Virtual Library
- Video of author Pamela Mayer reading the book to one of our classes
- More info on the launch of a very special project – The TDSB Student Chicken Soup Recipe Book! The idea is to feature chicken soup recipes, stories and illustrations from all different cultures and heritages because everyone makes chicken soup! It will ultimately be published (likely Sept 2021) and sold in schools that are interested as a fundraiser for Toronto Foundation For Student Success. Please start compiling your students' family chicken soup recipes along with illustrations and stories.
