In November, we honour Indigenous Education Month at the Toronto District School Board.

This month reminds us to centre First Nations, Métis and Inuit perspectives, voices, histories and contemporary realities. In classrooms across the TDSB, it is an opportunity to learn about treaties, Indigenous leadership, achievements, resistance and creativity.

Throughout the month of November, students, staff and community members recognize a number of important days to deepen knowledge, to learn together about our shared history and to build stronger relationships between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in what we call Canada today.

INDIGENOUS EDUCATION IS ALL DAY EVERYDAY
