Tutoring Update Spring 2023

What's new?

- Tutoring for K - 12 students is continuing at-school, in the community, and online
- Students have been receiving support in language and math, as well as other subjects such as French, STEM, geography, history, sciences, Canadian and world studies courses, civics/careers, art, phys ed, drama, and music.
- The Ministry funding comes to an end on June 30

Community-Based Tutoring (in alpha order) (NEW)

Thanks to the continued Ministry funding for Tutoring programs, thousands of TDSB students have benefitted from academic and social support provided by community organizations. We look forward to another successful round of tutoring from these groups who provide vital support in local neighbourhoods.

Online Tutoring Brainfuse & Paper Spring 2023

What is Online Tutoring?

- The TDSB is excited to offer free unlimited, on-demand, 24/7 tutoring services to all students
- Online tutoring offers students a convenient and flexible way to access tutoring
- Students can get help on assignments or prepare for upcoming tests/quizzes/exams
- The TDSB is not operating the online tutoring services. TDSB staff will not be present during tutoring sessions.

How Do I Sign Up?

Parents/Guardians/Caregivers and/or Students (18 years or older) who wish to participate in the free online tutoring services should contact Brainfuse or Paper to inquire about services and registration processes.

During registration, use your child's TDSB credentials (name, TDSB email address, etc.) to ensure that you are not charged for tutoring services. Once registered, a student can start tutoring immediately.

PAPER
